"Talent lies hidden in every child. The only need is to explore and identify it and nurture it by parents and the School.

Activities fuel your learning by stimulating creative thought, improving social and organizational skills, developing your interests and talents, and offering you the chance to switch off and do something you really enjoy."

Dear Parents

The School is all prepared for the new heights to be scaled by the children in Sports and Co-curricular activities. All the students will be offered four activities in a week.

The School is offering:
